"A person shall be permitted to address a meeting of a public body under rules established and recorded by the public body."

PUBLIC COMMENT – RULES

- 1. All persons are asked to state their name and address for the record.
- 2. All comments are to be directed to the Chair of the Wexford Joint Planning Commission, or the 'commission' as a whole, and not to individual members.
- 3. No person shall be permitted to speak more than once on the same matter, excluding time needed to answer 'commission member' questions.
- 4. Speaking time shall be limited to three (3) minutes per person. Additional time may be granted by the Chair if a group of persons decide to select an individual representative to speak for a group.
- 5. Please try to refrain from repeating / restating what has already been heard by the commission so that the commission can receive as much 'new' commentary as possible.
- 6. In order to avoid unnecessary debate, the 'commission' generally will not respond to public comment.

Silence or non-response by the 'commission' should not be interpreted as disinterest or disagreement by the 'commission'.
